“ Full of Laughter

Jessie, was a person always jokeing around laughing,playing jokes on people but had a golden heart if you knew the real Jessie. He was a friend a younger step brother or should i consider a very smart intelligient person, who loved his younger brother Mike Slali very much. Through thick n thin he was always there to cheer up the room when it was quiet with sound effects out of his mouth to a loud laugh! We will miss you Jessie, truely from the bottom of our hearts speaking with sadness but i know you are in a beautiful place now mijo. Mljo like i would always call him and others i came across that i would consider family, peace and lots of love. May you rest now Jessie with lots of peace and we shall meet again one day love you like a son and a brother from another mother lol!!!!!! Vaya con Dios..... Willy Quezada
